

Leticia Redleaf

“What do you mean this is a bad idea? I came up with it, of course it's perfect!”

The weight of responsibility bears heavily upon you. Your friends mean well, of course, but they just don't think things through, and frequently their plans end in disaster. Clearly they need a firm guiding hand to bring their mischief to fruition. (Avoiding mischief would, of course, be safer. But such cowardly recourse is beneath your dignity.) Sometimes your advice falls on deaf ears, but you don't let that discourage you; after all, they'd be lost without you.

Quirks

Self-Important

You're convinced that your involvement is critically necessary in any affair – for all that you generally haven't a clue what you're talking about. This Quirk helps when you take charge of any situation.

I Told You So

You're never quite able to forestall the catastrophes you see approaching, but foresight has its benefits. This Quirk helps when you need to extricate yourself and your friends from the entirely predictable predicaments in which you find yourselves (and to which your own actions definitely did not contribute).

Powers

Twinkle Toes

You can walk on air as though it were solid ground, ascending or descending like you're climbing stairs. When you use this Power, your footsteps emit puffs of shimmering sparkles and a sound like tiny bells.

Protagonist Syndrome

Your inherent magic tries to place you at the centre of events – whether you want it to or not! You always have perfect dramatic lighting, and getting dirty or beat up just lends you a long-suffering dignity. You receive +1 edge against any opponent who has at least +1 edge against you.
