

Danainae "Queen Mabby" Mab

"The queen of the Fairies is here! You may address me however you please."

Fairies don't have Queens, naturally. It would be like herding cats, except that cats aren't deliberately pulling pranks on you. You just like to pretend that you're a Queen, and you do it in the only way possible: to the precise extent that the others happen to feel like acknowledging it. For all that you're playing a role, though, you take the obligations that come with it quite seriously – as seriously as the fae take anything, anyway – and always try to do right by your “subjects”. You're neither haughty nor condescending; all in all, you're a real people-person. Or... a fairies-fairy.

Vital Statistics

Preferred Role: Looking pretty

Understanding of Human Technology: Minimal

Shortest Single Dance: One second (collided with Red)

Quirks

Noblesse Oblige

With great power comes great responsibility. This Quirk helps whenever you strive to fulfil your duty (whatever you've determined that means at the moment) toward your loyal subjects (whoever you've decided that is).

Rich Fantasy Life

You know that your whole “Queen of the Fairies” thing is just an act, but sometimes... well, you really get into it. This Quirk helps when you manage to stay in character even when it would probably be a better idea to let it slip for a moment.

Powers

Flight

You can fly, though not with any great speed.

Charmed Life

Fairy magic responds easily to your call - so easily, in fact, that you may not even realise you're using it! Whenever you roll one or more 6s in a test or contest, you receive one extra 🎲. This does not give the GM an extra 😊.
